

Job Search Program

One Month Virtual Program

Placing People First

A practical, customised, hands-on virtual program to support your next career path

Placing People First...

Your company is providing you a One-Month Virtual Program to support your new career.

Your NOVA Partners Coach will work with you to provide an individual, effective job search plan for your new career.

Flexibility is key to NOVA Partners' successful programs that delivers the best result for each individual.

Your Program

We will explain the current job market, career options and latest job search tools. Through one-on-one meetings, practical and strategic advice, you will achieve the best outcome for you. And your NOVA Partners Career Coach will be there every step of the way.

You will also have access to our innovative 24/7 Placing People First Online Career Management tools.

How we help you

- >> We ensure you are at your best to manage change
- >> Highlight your skills and achievements
- >> Explain how your skills are transferrable
- >> Prepare a resume and cover letters for current market
- >> Detail current Job Search techniques
- >> Assess and target job opportunities
- >> Interview coaching
- >> The value of LinkedIn and Social Media
- >> Additional support with our Health and Wellbeing Coach

Your future starts now!

We help you to be at your best and gain the best from your skills and achievements because we Place People First!

Call now for a confidential discussion about your needs – we are here to help.

And best of all, this program is at no cost to you!